Palm Sunday

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant, that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 31. 9-16

Thou hast not shut me up into the' hand of' the' enemy; / but hast set my' feet' in' a' broad' place.

HAVE mercy upon me, O LORD, for I' am' in'trouble, / and mine eye is consumed for very heaviness'; yea', my' soul and' my' body.

For my life is waxen' old'with' sorrow, / and my' years' with' mourn'ing.

My strength faileth me because of 'my' ad'ver- sity, / and' my' bones' are' con'sumed.

I am become a reproach because of' all' mine' enemies, / and e'specially' un'to' my 'neighbours;

And they of mine acquaintance' are' a'fraid of me; / and they that see me in the' street' flee' from me.

I am clean forgotten, as a dead man' out' of' mind; / I am become' like' a' bro'ken' vessel.

For I have heard the whispering of the multi- tude, and fear is on' eve'ry 'side; / while they conspire together against me, and plot to' take' a'way' my' life.

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Narrator: When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death; and they bound him and led him away and delivered him to Pilate the governor. When Judas, his betrayer, saw that he was condemned, he repented and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders, saying,

Judas: "I have sinned in betraying innocent blood."

Narrator: They said,

Chief Priests: "What is that to us? See to it yourself."

Narrator: And throwing down the pieces of silver in the temple, he departed; and he went and hanged himself. But the chief priests, taking the pieces of silver, said,

Chief Priests: "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since they are blood money."

Narrator: So they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. Therefore that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day. Then was fulfilled what had been spoken by the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him on whom a price had been set by some of the sons of Israel, and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord directed me." Now Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him,

Pilate: "Are you the King of the Jews?"

Narrator: Jesus said,

Jesus: "You have said so."

Narrator: But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he made no answer. Then Pilate said to him,

Pilate: "Do you not hear how many things they testify against you?"

Narrator: But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge; so that the governor wondered greatly. Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release for the crowd any one prisoner whom they wanted. And they had then a notorious prisoner, called Barab'bas. So when they had gathered, Pilate said to them,

Pilate: "Whom do you want me to release for you, Barab'bas or Jesus who is called Christ?"

Narrator: For he knew that it was out of envy that they had delivered him up. Besides, while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him,

Pilate's Wife: "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered much over him today in a dream."

Narrator: Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the people to ask for Barab'bas and destroy Jesus. The governor again said to them,

Pilate: "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said,

Crowd: "Barab'bas."

Narrator: Pilate said to them,

Pilate: "Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?"

Narrator: They all said,

Crowd: "Let him be crucified."

Narrator: And he said,

Pilate: "Why, what evil has he done?"

Narrator: But they shouted all the more,

Crowd: "Let him be crucified."

Antiphon: Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One have Mercy Upon us.

Narrator: So when Pilate saw that he was gaining nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd saying,

Pilate: I am innocent of this man's blood; see to it yourselves."

Narrator: And all the people answered,

Crowd: "His blood be on us and on our children!"

Narrator: Then he released for them Barab'bas, and having scourged Jesus, delivered him to be crucified. Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the praetorium, and they gathered the whole battalion before him. And they stripped him and put a scarlet robe upon him, and plaiting a crown of thorns they put it on his head and put a reed in his right hand. And kneeling before him they mocked him, saying,

Soldiers: "Hail, King of the Jews!"

Narrator: And they spat upon him, and took the reed and struck him on the head. And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the robe, and put his own clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him. As they went out, they came upon a man of Cyre'ne, Simon by name; this man they compelled to carry his cross. And when they came to a place called Gol'gotha (which means the place of the skull) they offered him wine to drink, mingled with gall, but when he tasted it, he would not drink it.

Please stand.

And when they had crucified him, they divided his garments among them by casting lots then they sat down and kept watch over him there. And over his head they put the charge against him, which read, "This is Jesus the King of the Jews."

Narrator: Then two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left. And those who passed by derided him, wagging their heads and saying,

Bystanders: You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross.

Narrator: So also the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, mocked him, saying,

Chief Priests: "He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him. He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he desires him; for he said, "I am the Son of God."

Narrator: And the robbers who were crucified with him also reviled him in the same way. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice,

Jesus: "Eli, Eli, la'ma sabach-tha'ni?"

Narrator: that is, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

Antiphon: Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One have Mercy Upon us.

Narrator: And some of the bystanders hearing it said,

Bystanders: "This man is calling Eli'jah."

Narrator: And one of them at once ran and took a sponge, filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink. But the others said,

Bystanders: "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come and save him."

Narrator: And Jesus cried again with a loud voice and yielded up his spirit. And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom and the earth shook, and the rocks were split; the tombs also were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised, and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many. When the centurion and those who were with him, keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were filled with awe, and said,

Centurion: "Truly this was the Son of God!"

Narrator: When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who was also a disciple of Jesus. He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus; then Pilate ordered it to be given to him. So Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock. He then rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb and went away. Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb. The next day, that is, after the day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate and said,

Chief Priests: “Sir, we remember what that impostor said while he was still alive, ‘After three days I will rise again.’ Therefore command the tomb to be made secure until the third day; otherwise his disciples may go and steal him away, and tell the people, ‘He has been raised from the dead,’ and the last deception would be worse than the first.”

Narrator: Pilate said to them,

Pilate: “You have a guard of soldiers; go, make it as secure as you can.”

Narrator: So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure by sealing the stone.

Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One have Mercy Upon us.

Luther Bach Choir presents a Best of the Baroque Concert Series performance entitled "Music for Holy Week." Tonight at 7:30 in the Rex Schneider Auditorium (second floor) at Luther College at the University of Regina. The programme includes music by J.S. Bach, Berezovski, Britten, and others and features guest conductor Dorianna Holowachuk. A freewill offering will be collected.

The Wardens Group met on April 10, 2019. Key discussion items included:

- Conversation on a discussion paper/framework document for moving forward
- Comments from representatives on their parish strengths and challenges
- The importance of relationship building amongst the parishes
- The need to move forward more quickly in developing some scenarios/options to recommend to the Bishop
- Developing a decision making matrix for assessing the scenarios
- Tasking the Steering Committee to develop three scenarios to bring back to the Wardens' Group at their May 1 meeting.
