Trinity Sunday

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast given unto us thy servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity: We beseech thee, that this holy faith may evermore be our defence against all adversities; who livest and reignest, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE WORD OF THE LORD: TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

FIRST READING.

Does not wisdom call, Does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights beside the way, in the paths she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries aloud: "To you, O men, I call, and my cry is to the sons of men. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth; before he had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master workman; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the sons of men.

SECOND READING.

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.

GOSPEL.

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Parish Life Notes

Prayer meeting - The St. Cuthbert's regional team, along with the Wardens from each of the nine congregations in our region, are attempting to discern the future of the Anglican Church in the city of Regina. We have formed two prayer groups, each of whom meet briefly every month to provide prayer support for this process. This month, we will have one gathering on Monday, June 24 at 6 pm at the Synod office. We will begin with food, followed by a time of prayer. Please bring a dish to share. Newcomers are welcome. Questions can be directed to Kate B.

Children's Summer Program for 2019, from June 30 to September 1, for ages 3 – 13. Daily Life at the time of Jesus. Thank you, Kate, for revising the curriculum! Anyone interested in leading or helping out on a Sunday morning see sign-up sheet on the landing or speak to Sandra or Norma.

This camp is held at Glen Harbor Camp (65 km north of Regina on the east side of Last Mountain Lake) and is for ages 6 – 12. Staff includes members of St. Mary's congregation. If you are interested in volunteering to come and do a craft with the children on the morning of July 25, or 26, please talk to Dave and Janice K.

“Dirt to Divinity: Making Holy Icons from the Land.” The sacredness of an Orthodox icon goes deeper than giving our eyes something beautiful to see or our minds something theological to ponder. While doing both of these, icons present to us a vision of events and people from the perspective of divine Love. In doing so, icons invite us to see the Kingdom of God. Join us on Sunday, July 14th at 6.30 p.m. as iconographer Symeon van Donkelaar will speak about traditional Orthodox icons and making them at the Conestoga Iconographic Studio.”

St. Mary's Refugee Support. The Churchwardens are looking for persons interested in being part of a committee to support the efforts of the parish to support the family of Elizabeth and Deng in sponsoring family members to come to Canada from refugee camp in Kenya. Please speak to Carol or Alan after the service.

Next Sunday: 10.30 a.m. Outdoor Service and Picnic at Kiwanis Park! Please bring a salad to share and lawn chair or blanket to sit on, and outdoor games! Drinks and turkey sandwiches will be provided. To get to Kiwanis Park see map.
