Pentecost

GOD, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit: Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE WORD OF THE LORD: TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

FIRST READING.

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken. Utterly amazed, they asked: "Aren't all these who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?" Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine." Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel: "In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord. And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'

SECOND READING.

For those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God. The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship. And by him we cry, "Abba, Father." The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

GOSPEL.

Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know Him, because He abides with you, and He will be in you.

Parish Life Notes

Warm welcome to Bishop Rob, who is preaching and presiding at our service today!

Baptism. Today in Holy Baptism we receive with joy Aweng and Mark Jr., and Nymuon into Christ's Church.

Congratulations to Kelliane and Alex M on the birth of their daughter, Claire Elyse, on May 28.

Outdoor Service and Picnic will take place Sunday, June 23 at 10.30 a.m. near St. Mary's at Kiwanis Park off Elphinstone Street. Please mark your calendars. Further details to follow.

Congratulations and Blessings to Steve M and Karen P who were united in Holy Matrimony on Saturday at St. Mary's

The family of Veronica Pasterfield is grateful to her church family for the loving support for us all at the time of her death. Thank you to the ladies group for serving delicious tea after the funeral and to our friend Claude for leading the funeral service. Thank You!

Icon Painting Workshop will take place at St. Mary's from July 15-19th. Please see flyer on the welcome table in the narthex. Registration forms are available from Yvonne in the parish office.

Mission opportunity - we are again feeding the hungry at Souls Harbour soup kitchen by helping to serve and clean up after the evening meal on Thursday, June 13 between 4 p.m. and 7 p.m. Please join us! Souls Harbour soup kitchen is now located at 1632 Angus St. Please come through back double door. There are a few parking spots available for volunteers at the back of our building otherwise please park on the surrounding streets. If you can help out, please advise Sandra D.

Kitchen maintenance ministry Part of our mission as Disciples of Christ is to engage in hospitality to strangers and to each other. The upper hall kitchen is the hub of much of this activity. In order to make this a viable option, we have invited the parish family into sharing in the cleaning of the kitchen on a regular basis, so that it is a welcoming place for us and our community members. If you feel called to join in this ministry, please sign up on the sheet inside the kitchen.

The annual Qu'Appelle House Tea was held May 15th. We would like to thank everyone who donated baking, items for the craft table, their time & staff who helped make the tea a success. Some of the money raised will be used this summer to buy bedding plants and have a KFC picnic in July. The residents welcome us into their home and enjoy this annual event. Thanks for coming.

TWO SAINTS' WAY PILGRIMAGE: Join us for an 8 day, 92 mile pilgrimage along the historic "Two Saints Way" pilgrimage route from Chester to Litchfield Cathedral , U.K. from September 15-22.
