“Dirt to Divinity: Making Holy Icons from the Land.” The sacredness of an Orthodox icon goes deeper than giving our eyes something beautiful to see or our minds something theological to ponder. While doing both of these, icons present to us a vision of events and people from the perspective of divine Love. In doing so, icons invite us to see the Kingdom of God. Join us on Sunday, July 14th at 6.30 p.m. as iconographer Symeon van Donkelaar will speak about traditional Orthodox icons.

Children's Summer Program for 2019, from June 30 to September 1, for ages 3 – 13. Our Jewish Roots. Anyone interested in leading or helping out on a Sunday morning see sign-up sheet by the elevator or speak to Sandra or Norma.
